

IMPROVE HEALTHCARE FINANCIAL COMPETENCY

Learn the Financial Essentials from the Healthcare Industry's Leading Organization and Prepare for HFMA Certification

With pay-for-performance, value-based purchasing (VBP), staffing shortages, and increased competition, increasingly healthcare providers with the best financial management achieve superior clinical and business outcomes, as well as better HCAHPS ratings. Superior financial management is the direct result of superior competency of your financial managers. The HFMA Finance Suite is the most comprehensive curriculum for healthcare financial managers, covering a wide range of topics from regulatory compliance, cost analysis, budgeting, and reimbursement to accounts receivables management and physician practice management. Containing five distinct libraries, these courses are ideally suited to both new hires and as a refresher for experienced finance professionals. HFMA's Finance Suite is derived from the Study Guide used as preparation for the Certified Healthcare Financial Professional (CHFP) exam. This is a highly valued certification and survey results have demonstrated a strong relationship between certification and career advancement.

Adopted by healthcare financial executives at the nation's premier hospitals.
