

ACTIVATE THE HLC QUICKLY

Generate Rapid ROI with HealthStream's HLC Expert Guidance

High-performing healthcare providers understand that enterprise learning is a critical component to their success. Many of these providers choose the HealthStream Learning Center (HLC) as the platform from which to launch and manage learning initiatives across their entire enterprise. Implementation of critical systems like the HLC requires tight alignment with organizational structure, business objectives and learning strategies. HealthStream's HLC Activation Services guides customers through the entire HLC deployment process, from project planning through launch and optimization. The ideal solution for smaller enterprise customers without complex implementation requirements, HLC Activation Services helps organizations drive rapid returns on their investments in enterprise learning.

Our activation team leads you through our Quick Start process for a rapid cost effective HLC deployment.
